

WASHINGTON -- Today, U.S. Representative John W. Olver (D-First District) announced House

"Comprehensive campaign finance reform is way overdue. Finally, Shays-Meehan is going to&

"It truly saddens me to watch voter apathy and cynicism in this country continue to grow. I belie

"Campaigns should be about issues and constituent concerns, not whomever has the most mo

Congressman Olver has long been a supporter of comprehensive campaign finance reform inc

H.R. 3526, the Shays-Meehan bill, will ban national parties from raising soft money and restrict

There are still nine substitute amendments on campaign finance reform which are expected to

###